

STRICT MEASURES TO FIGHT ILLNESS

Mortality Record for Utah Indicates Need of Early Action.

Salt Lake, Jan. 29.—According to the mortality report for December, just issued by Dr. T. B. Beatty, secretary of the state board of health, there were 345 deaths in Utah in December, of which 155 were in Salt Lake City. There were 173 cases of scarlet fever with 5 deaths and 22 cases of smallpox, but none was fatal. There was one death from diphtheria and membranous croup out of 23 cases recorded.

Four deaths resulted from typhoid fever of which there were 21 cases. Twenty-one cases of pneumonia were reported and 14 resulted fatally. Of 10 cases of tuberculosis 6 resulted in death.

With the issuing of this report Secretary Beatty gives the following special instructions:

The unusual prevalence of scarlet fever in various parts of the state calls for the utmost efforts on the part of health officers and school authorities in order that its spread may be restricted. Two facts should be especially remembered:

First, that the disease is extremely contagious, remaining so as long as there is any scaling; and, second, that many cases of the disease are so mild as to cause little sickness, resulting frequently in failure to recognize or report it.

Should Enforce Quarantine. Quarantine should be strictly enforced as long as there is any appearance of scaling and the person affected should not be permitted to attend school in any case for a period of three weeks after quarantine is removed, in accordance with the law. Disinfection should be thorough, and following it the doors and windows should be kept open as long as possible to allow an abundance of sunlight and fresh air to enter, which is an important part of disinfection.

People should be urged to carefully watch for the first symptoms of the disease, and however mild it may be, the same strict precautions should be taken in all cases. Vomiting and sore throat should always be looked upon with suspicion, and children should be detained from attendance at school whenever they occur. Failure to report the disease or attempts to conceal its presence should be punished to the full extent provided by law. Teachers should be instructed to be on the alert to recognize the first symptoms of sickness or eruption and to promptly exclude children so affected.

Common Drinking Cup. One of the frequent sources of scarlet fever, diphtheria and other contagious diseases is the use of the common drinking cup. In the schools this should not be permitted. Where it is impossible to provide the overflow tap, children should be required to use individual cups, which should be numbered. This rule should be strictly enforced by teachers.

Attention is again called to the importance of fighting against the bad air conditions everywhere so prevalent. No other agency is so directly responsible for ill health and contagious diseases, both in the home and schoolroom. Breathing impure air lowers the vitality and resistance to disease germs, and proper ventilation should be insisted upon as the most important of health measures.

The alarming death rate from pneumonia at this time is due almost entirely to neglect of providing fresh air in the homes. Windows and doors are kept tightly closed because of the cold weather and the breathing of impure air results in the direct susceptibility to the infection of pneumonia. The best preventative of pneumonia is pure air night and day.

It is hoped that health officers will spread the gospel of fresh air and thus cheat death of many of its victims.

Famous Beauties Never Get Fat

Womanhood wonders why famous beauties grow old, but do not grow fat. They live at silken ease, amid pure in flesh pots. The wine that puffs out secure mortals, flows and liberally down their alabaster throats. Yet their life-long loaf does not thicken their limbs nor double their chins. What is the secret of the long-lived gracefulness of the haughty?

One-half ounce Marmola, 1-2 oz. Fl. Ex. Cascara Aromatic 3-12 oz. Peppermint water. This is the famous Marmola Prescription, long familiar to the fashionable pharmacists of the world and their clients, but which has only recently penetrated to the knowledge of the hot polloi of womanhood. Since when, for convenience sakes, it has been put into elegant pocket form, the Marmola Prescription Tablet, which can now be had of well nigh any druggist, fashionably and ordinarily, of the Marmola Co., 1121 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., in large cases for seventy-five cents.

With this tablet any woman can reduce, be losing a pound a day, in a few weeks; take off fat (where it shows most) on chin, abdomen, hips, etc., without need for exercising, table restraint, fear of wrinkles, or the slightest physical harm or uneasiness.

Any skin itching is a temper-tester. The more you scratch the worse it itches. Doan's Ointment cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. At all drug stores.

STATE CHAMPIONS WIN FAST GAME

Salt Lake Y. M. C. A. Basketball Team Outclasses Valiant Local Players.

Although outclassed by the heavy weight and strong team work of their opponents, members of the basketball team of the School for the Deaf and Blind of Ogden, offered clean-cut and valiant opposition to the First Y. M. C. A. five of Salt Lake City at the local school last evening. The game was one of the fastest and cleanest that has been seen for some time and was marked by spectacular playing on the part of a number of local players. The contest was in the nature of a practice game and was not a part of the regular league schedule. The visitors held the state basketball championship.

The score last night was 64 to 31 in favor of the visitors. Next Wednesday night the Deaf school team will meet the Weber Academy players in the latter's gymnasium in a game that promises to provide a clean, interesting contest.

GLAVIS HAS MANY LETTERS

as he can, at least, that is my solution of the situation.

"Glavis professes the greatest friendship to you and I think him better than any one else and this is certainly the situation we have. He will make about forty favorable and about five hundred unfavorable reports; the way things will commence to drop will be amusing."

In a second letter from Dennett to Schwartz, dated Seattle, July 22, 1909, occurs this paragraph:

"Glavis has these coal cases on the brain and cannot see anything but just one line. I have told him how it looks to us and have reminded him of everything that we have done for him and that it looks as if he were turning our favors by not standing by us as he ought to. He has not acted as you or I would act under similar circumstances. It looks a little treacherous to me, this calling in the forestry."

There was also introduced in this connection this telegram from Schwartz to Dennett, dated Washington, July 21:

"Department has letter from Secretary of Agriculture, originated in forest service, asking postponement of the Cunningham hearings until November. Shaw says Glavis wrote or wired him recently in matter. Require Glavis to show you copy his letter to Shaw, it being necessary to determine motive behind agriculture's requirement for such long delay."

Glavis explained he had asked Shaw by telegram to come to Seattle to cooperate with him on the Cunningham claims as several were in forest reserves. Another letter was from Secretary Ballinger to Mr. Schwartz dated Boise, Idaho, July 25, 1909:

The secretary of the Interior said, among other things:

"I am just advised by Commissioner Dennett of your telegram in reference to the increase in the number of special agents in the excepted class. I desire that you, in making any of these appointments, in addition to the president being consulted, Postmaster General Hitchcock be also consulted, provided the appointees are not directly suggested by the president."

The last document, read while Glavis was on the stand, called out a great deal of laughter. It was a telegram from Mr. Schwartz, dated Washington, August 12, 1909, at the time attacks were being made upon Secretary Ballinger and others and was addressed to M. B. McEniry, special agent at Denver. It read:

"Get Into Scareheads."

"Get into scare heads tonight and Associated Press if possible that Secretary and commissioner have secured evidence showing unlawful combination of seven hundred coal entries; that general land office is assigning its best coal engineers and lawyers to Seattle to assist in the coming trials. That Commissioner General Land Office White in Denver, had expressed confidence that several hundred entries would be cancelled; that government is making every effort to secure speedy action on these cases as all coal entries in Alaska have now been suspended for over four years; that government is anxious to clear these lands of bad entries that it may get coal for its coal stations in the Pacific; that special agents say coming hearings will reach some of the largest interests yet uncovered."

Ballinger has made it plain that he will stand behind them to the finish; that several of the railroad corporations owned by eastern capital are making indirect efforts to delay the hearings; hoping that the next congress will pass further remedial legislation or permit greater consolidation, but it is the position of the commissioner that such entries as are fraudulent, as the law stands, should be cancelled at once and criminal liabilities developed before statute bars action.

"Follow somewhat above ideas. I understand newspaper attacks about to be made on commissioner of general land office, secretary of the Interior and Assistant Secretary of the Interior Pierce in Alaska coal. I wish to forestall."

"Treat the source of the information secret as I have consulted no one. After putting this out until advised further, avoid using this matter."

(Signed)

"SCHWARTZ."

ROBIN HOOD REAPPEARS

He and His Band Are Robbing the Rich of Missouri

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 29.—A modern Robin Hood is plying his trade in Kansas City. When last seen he was disappearing with his band of two into the woods on the east outskirts of the city, after having robbed J. F. Landen, a trusted collector of a prominent local coal and grain company, of $318 of the firm's money and refusing to take $5 belonging to Landen personally.

The robbery occurred yesterday afternoon in a sparsely settled district. Landen, while driving along the road, was held up by three men who, after relieving him of a wallet containing the firm's money, emphasized their demands for more booty by showing a revolver in his face and ordering him to "shell out some more."

Landen produced a single five-dollar bill, protesting that it was his own property and was all the money he had.

"Well, we don't want it then," was the surprising declaration of the spokesman. "We rob only the rich. Keep it for your wife and kids."

The robbers then bound Landen to a tree and escaped. He managed to free himself and give the alarm. A squad of mounted police scoured the woods until darkness, but no traces of the highwaymen were found.

JOE GOSS PUTS ON A NEW HEADLINER

Entirely unadvertised and without preliminary announcement of any kind, Joe Goss, the popular resident manager of the Orpheum theater, was responsible for a star performance last night which promises to achieve "headline" honors in the amusement world.

The first rehearsal proved highly satisfactory. The characters were few and the leading role was assumed by Miss Goss, first name not yet selected, who made her first appearance on the stage of life. The debut was a "howling" success and the genial theatrical manager, for the first time in his life a rather, is happier than Martin Beck with a new theater, or an aeroplane.

The Orpheum theater, in celebration of the event, will present the best bill of the season, beginning tonight. The Examiner will continue to give Orpheum tickets free to subscribers.

P. S.—This was not written by Mr. Goss.

WANTS MORE MONEY FOR INDIAN FARMERS

Washington, Jan. 29.—For further encouragement of agriculture among the Indians, including the establishment of demonstration farms, Secretary Ballinger today recommended to congress an appropriation of $230,000 for pay of farmers in the Indian service, instead of $125,000 as previously estimated.

Secretary Ballinger says the final independence of the Indian from the government tutelage can be made possible by educating him to make proper use of the land.

Wright's Yearly $1.95 Shoe Sale

At 9 o'clock Monday morning we start the Greatest Ladies' Shoe Sale of the entire year ---1000 pairs of brand new shoes in patent leathers--gun metals--vici kid--new heels--latest toes--cloth or kid tops--some suedes in colors--some with cloth tops to match spring gowns.

Not a pair in the lot is worth less than $3, and most of them are worth $4 and $5.

Three Shoe Stores Failed to Pay Their Bills

These shoes were made up for three different shoe stores--they were stamped with the stores' name and packed in their own cartons--when the factory received notice not to ship them.

Our shoe buyer, who had just returned from Boston, was offered the whole lot--at a price which makes it possible to our customers at

$1.95

The sale will continue until every pair is sold--and there will be no disappointments--you are to come expecting shoe bargains--no matter what size you wear--and you will not be disappointed.

NO APPROVALS

The demand will be so keen for these shoes that we cannot allow them to leave the store on approval. We will, however, refund the money to any who want it.

ALL SIZES

Contrary to the rule in sales of this kind--we will have all sizes--while there will not be all sizes of every style--yet in some styles we will have any size.

CONGRESS CONSIDERS ENEMY OF COTTON

Washington, Jan. 29.—An effort by southern members to increase from $215,000 to $500,000, the appropriation carried in the agricultural bill for a study and investigation of methods for controlling the boll weevil furnished the chief feature of interest in the house today, representative Sims of Tennessee, referring to a newspaper criticism of congress, on account of their alleged misuse of the franking privilege, defended his colleagues. At 4:12 o'clock the house adjourned until Monday.

The senate was not in session today.

AMERICAN MEN LACK MUCH OF CULTURE

New York, Jan. 29.—Prof. Munsterberg of Harvard, who was in New York today, has a poor opinion of the average American.

"The average business man," he said, "is too little interested in anything outside his business. The women of the country control culture and higher ideals. The man takes too selfish an attitude toward himself and his business. This is unfortunate. We should all our lives with idealism. The man who simply goes in his vocation a means of getting the better of his fellow man, destroys his power to get satisfaction from anything."
